

NORTHERN LIGHT LAUNCHED AT ATHABASCA LANDING

Captain Barber's New Steamer Will Slide Off the Skids this Afternoon--Low Water on Lower River. Hyslop and Nagle Out of Luck

Athabasca Landing, June 23 (Special to the Bulletin).—Capt. Barber's new steamer the Northern Light is about finished, and will be launched to-day. She leaves for Lesser Slave Lake, her destination, about the first of July. The Northern Light was built entirely in the Athabasca boat yards by Capt. Barber, and is a fine piece of workmanship. Mr. Phillips, steamboat inspector, is now here, and will inspect her as soon as launched. He will then proceed down the river to Lake Athabasca to inspect all steamers in that district, returning by way of Peace River Crossing and Lesser Slave. A party of six men arrived here last night by boat from Lesser Slave on their way to Edmonton to take in the exhibition. They report a good deal of water in Little River and water still rising. Reports from down stream by men just arrived here say that the Hyslop & Nagle transports were in very bad luck this season, having sunk four of their boats and damaged the remaining sixteen on their way down to Fort McMurray. The water in the Athabasca is still very low and fears are entertained that the steamer Midnight Sun, now down the river, and which was due here on the 13th may not be able to return until the water rises.

Mr. Shanks, contractor for the side-walks in the village, is pushing the work and will have them completed in a few days. They are all six feet wide and make a great improvement in the appearance of the village.

Mr. I. Gagnon is at present very busy having a large ditch run through his farm the cost of which will be close to two thousand dollars.

Quite a large number of settlers are locating in this district this season, but as the land is unsurveyed they are only locating at present as squatters.

Inspector Camies of the R.N.W.M.P., left this morning for Fort St. John, by boat via Lesser Slave and Peace River.

SULLIVON'S TESTIMONY

Admits Having Drank Whiskey Once at Isolation Hospital but Says Other Stuff was a Red Colored Jag Cure

The isolation hospital investigation was resumed before Judge Harvey yesterday afternoon. Wm. Asher, father of the boy, was recalled, and gave evidence as to the boy's condition previous to going to hospital regarding the sores on his foot. Hewitt, a nurse, was also recalled and said that the boy had no cough whatever.

At the continuation of the investigation this morning, Dr. Sullivan was on the box by Mr. Beck to give his evidence. He had been sent to the hospital by Dr. Braithwaite on condition that he would abstain from alcohol, that night and to take medicine which would help him to abstain. When he went to the hospital he undertook the duties of night nurse, and continued so until the day before yesterday. He was away from the hospital for a few days, and when he returned he was acting as day nurse. Wednesday evening a telephone message to Merkeley came from Dr. McGibbon to prepare for the boy that night. The patient could not require a bath, as he had had one at the public hospital. He was to be placed on milk diet. When the boy was taken home he had a rash and had been ill for some days. He was delirious all that night. A few minutes before twelve they telephoned for Dr. McGibbon, but could not get him. Afterwards he telephoned the doctor and told him the boy was very ill. When Dr. McGibbon came he said the patient had hemorrhagic scarlet fever. Witness said a patient who had an attack of this never recovered. Witness said he had occasion to go into the pantry the day before yesterday and saw a bottle of whiskey. He saw it was a red colored jag cure. He saw it was a red colored jag cure. He saw it was a red colored jag cure.

On Sunday night Main told witness that Merkeley had complained to him that the boy was drinking whiskey. Witness said about him drinking whiskey was not true. The medicine was taking a cure was in to the same whiskey. The patients were curious to know what he was drinking, and he did not care to tell them that he was taking medicine to cure him from the drink habit. He had been laid off by Main, and when he was sent back by Dr. Braithwaite, he was put on a diet of the diptheria ward. He never went into the other tent after being dealt with the diptheria tent. Dr. McGibbon did not visit his patient from the 8th until the 12th. Dr. McGibbon came again on the 14th. On Thursday, the 15th, the father of the boy telephoned an inquiry, and was informed that the boy was dangerous. The father did not come to the tent until the night of the 15th. Thursday, the 15th, Dr. McGibbon telephoned and Sullivan answered the call. Dr. McGibbon spoke sharply, and witness couldn't make out exactly what he said, something about a fire in the tent. Dr. McGibbon asked for the man in charge of his patient, and McLeay came to the phone and told the doctor that the fire in the tent had gone rather low. Dr. McGibbon came to the tent at 11 a.m. and asked to see the man in charge of his patient. He examined the boy's foot. He had marks on the foot, and a low the matter to run out. Witness said there was blood poison in the wound and throughout the body. On the 15th the scarlet fever was practically over, but the boy was suffering from the blood poison. Dr. McGibbon himself dressed the boy's foot that night. Witness said Hewitt, the new nurse was a competent man. Merkeley was a good nurse, but it took two nurses to look after him. Witness said diptheria was not highly infectious. The sores the boy had were not bad ones. The boy had not been in the tent long enough to contract bad sores. On the 16th Dr. McGibbon telephoned on Thursday 17th, for the boy's condition, and witness told him he thought the boy would not live twenty-four hours. On Thursday the boy had convulsions, which witness said were caused by too much strychnine. Dr. McGibbon and Dr. McConnell came out to the tent, and saw the boy, and decided that he would not live. They tried to find his father. Witness said the boy had no cough.

Sullivan will probably be cross-examined by Mr. Biggar this afternoon, as the investigation is being continued.

BANK TELLER LEVANTS

W. C. Crampton who, Acted as Advance Agent for Dominion Concert Co. is Missing with Some Money

Medicine Hat, June 22.—The absconding of W. E. Crampton, teller of a local bank, has caused considerable excitement in the city, as the missing man was very popular in social circles. A number of Medicine Hat people with artistic aspirations formed the Dominion Concert Company and toured the towns and cities of Alberta. Crampton spent his two weeks holiday acting as advance agent for the company and in this capacity visited Banff, Calgary, Wetaskiwin and Edmonton. On Saturday night he was in Wetaskiwin and was to return to the "Hat" Monday to resume his duties in the bank here. As he has not shown up and no word was received from him, the R. N. W. M. P. were summoned and the inspector of the bank absconded from Lethbridge. This morning it was ascertained that there was a shortage and a warrant was issued for Crampton's arrest. The bank officials explain that the sum missing is small.

Interesting Real Estate Case

A real estate case of considerable interest occupied all the time of the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon and brought out a whole lot of new light on the legal side of the real estate business.

The suit was McPhee vs. Mathers et al for damages. A. D. Beck, K.C., and Cogswell appearing for the plaintiff and J. R. Boyle, for the defendant.

The suit arose out of the ownership of lot No. 66, block 6, on Jasper avenue, which had passed through many hands under agreement of sale. Originally it was owned by Edmund Brosseau. He sold it under agreement to A. Cleland, who later turned it over to Mathers, the defendant of the suit. Cleland getting his equity out and handing over the Brosseau agreement to Mathers. Mathers next sold to McPhee on terms, McPhee undertaking to pay Mathers a balance and to assume the Brosseau payments. McPhee failed to make good either with Mathers or Brosseau, whereupon Brosseau came back on Cleland, who came back on Mathers. Mathers paid Brosseau and entered action to cancel McPhee's interest in the property. Before the case went to trial a settlement was reached by which McPhee agreed to make all payments on a certain day at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, which he failed to do. Mathers sold the lot to J. Cote and McPhee brought action to collect damages against Mathers for cutting him out of the property. McPhee set up the claim that he had offered to pay the money previous to expiry but that Mathers was unable to give him title.

The question before the court was whether McPhee was willing to pay or was Mathers able to give title. The trial lasted two days, Judge Harvey deciding last night for the defendant Mathers, with costs, the judge being of the opinion that McPhee was never ready to pay.

HAAKON VII CROWNED

With Simple Ceremony, Norway, for First Time in Six Centuries, Crowns a King

Trondhjem, June 22.—King Haakon VII. was crowned king of Norway in Trondhjem cathedral to-day. The ceremony was one of great historical interest as King Haakon is the first ruler Norway has had to herself for nearly six hundred years, having been bound with either Denmark or Sweden since the fourteenth century. No attempt was made to imitate the picturesque coronation ceremony of the old viking kings. Everything was carried out with the utmost simplicity. The procession to the church was simple. It consisted only of the king, queen and court officials, with a small escort. It was formerly the custom for the King to make a lengthy tour of the streets on foot, but King Haakon decided to break the precedent. The King and Queen left Slottsgaard, the royal residence, and drove half a mile to the cathedral. The streets were packed to suffocation, with people who cheered enthusiastically. Arriving at the cathedral they were received by the Bishop and fifty ministers. The procession, headed by the Bishop and priests, advanced towards the altar. The clergy ascended to the altar while the King and Queen went to an elevated space under the main tower, where thrones had been placed in the midst of decorations of red velvet and embroidered gold. The church was very densely crowded. All rose and stood until the King and Queen were seated. After a brief sermon by Bishop Bang the King, accompanied by aides, and preceded by the chief chamberlains and standard bearers, walked to the altar where Bishop Wexelsen announced him on the forehead and wrist. State symbols were on the altar. Premier Michaelson and Bishop Wexelsen placed the crown on the King's head. As the sword was handed the King the warships in the harbor began firing a salute of seventy-two guns. Chief Justice Lohsen placed the royal robe over the King's shoulders, and the ceremony was completed.

SOLDIERS OF THE KING IN AMATEUR VAUDEVILLE

Smoker Out at C. M. R. Camp Last Night was Warm, Harmonious and Pleasant for all Concerned

The first break in the monotony of the camp life at the C. M. R. camp took place last night, when the non-commissioned officers and men of "A" squadron held a smoker and bon-fire concert to which they invited their comrades from "B" and "C" squadrons, and also the friends of the regiment from the city. The boys in the tunics proved themselves to be royal entertainers and a large number of the fair sex were present to admire the uniforms and listen to the songs of the soldiers. The evening was ideal for an open air concert, and the camp looked very pretty in the twilight. W. G. Plover and his mandolin and guitar orchestra were conspicuous by their presence in the big band wagon, and the sweet strains of their music floated out upon the evening air, and made everybody feel pleasant and contented. After the cigars had been passed among the men, and the ladies had been comfortably seated, the programme began. A nice little upright piano had been brought down to the camp, and the accompaniments were played in a masterful manner by Quartermaster-Sergeant "Dickie" Day. First, there was an Irish song by Private "Irish" Sullivan, which was a jolly good number. Corporal Harry Coles, a native of merry England, gave as his contribution the song, "Under the Old Umbrella," which was happily sung, and as happily applauded. Then the big bonfire was lighted, and as the flames rose high and cast a cheerful glow on all around, the songs of the boys rose also, and so did their spirits, so that by the time "Dickie" Day Day got started around to the piano stool again he was feeling so jolly that he thumped out a good old march or two, which delighted everybody. Private Green was then called to the stand and in a rousing manner sang "The Soldiers of the King." When the chorus came everybody joined right in, and those who didn't know the words shouted out the tune anyway. Private Ashley gave some comic songs and also several other privates. At the conclusion Col. McDonald thanked the non-coms, and men of "A" squadron for their evening's entertainment and called for three cheers for them. They got it good and loud, and the guests took their departure just as the orderly bugler was sounding "lights out."

RAPINE AND LOOT IN RUSSIA. London, June 23.—Specials to the Times from St. Petersburg report assaults on Jews throughout the empire to be increasing in violence. In the Russian capital many Hebrews have been killed and from interior cities reports of atrocities from one city appear to infuriate the populace of other cities and apparently provoke riots directed at helpless women and children. The Jews have defended their homes with greatest bravery though usually captured and tortured to death for their resolute defence. Representations of powers have failed to arouse the government. It is charged that the torturing government hoped to turn the attention of the people toward the hated Jews and thus gain time in the gathering storm. The black flag continues to receive encouragement. It practically licenses to rob, murder and torture, so long as the victims are Jews.

Edmonton and Strathcona Play Spotted Ball

Victory for the Caps Last Night Was Largely a Matter of Luck and Heavy Hitting in Early Stages

Edmonton defeated Strathcona last night by eight to five in a spotted game that had some pretty places and a few very homely looking passages. To commence with, Edmonton put a boy by the name of Tait on the slab who for the first two innings held the score of Strathcona quite nicely but in the third they got to him along and he went up in the air and did not reach terra firma again during the game. He was displaced by Vining in the sixth.

Strathcona did the same thing, only more so. In the seventh they put in a boy by the name of Ball, who may have had several other good points, but he was not a ball player. Right in the first innings the Caps got to him for three hits, and again in the third, with Dutton and Barry en route, Tait hit it fair on the nose and slammed a homer over the fence, clearing the sacks. McGirl followed with a walk, Dobson flew out, Crown hit and Grady again cleared the sacks on a two base hit, making five runs in one inning.

At this stage the Strathcona manager came out of it and put in Allen, who threw a very nice game and held them down to two hits, no runs. From the time that Vining went in, in the sixth, to the fall of the curtain, it was errorless ball, no hits, no runs, and the people saw as pretty a performance as has been seen this summer.

The score by innings: Edmonton 3 0 5 0 0 0 0 0 3 Strathcona 0 0 2 0 3 0 0 0 5

ALBERTA RED OFFICIAL NAME

Ottawa House Adopts the Title for all Hard Winter Wheat Grown in Canada

Ottawa, Ont., June 22.—In committee of the whole today, on discussion of the name of "Alberta Red" being applied to all grades of hard winter wheat, Mr. Armstrong, Esq. Lambton, objected on the ground that it would be an injustice to Saskatchewan and Manitoba if they went into winter wheat growing. Mr. McCarthy, Calgary, Dr. McIntyre, of Strathcona and Mr. Heron, of Alberta, defended the name. Dr. McIntyre in forcible speech contended that the name was not sectional in character, but was applied to hard winter wheat as a distinctive name, indicative of quality, as the name "Manitoba" applied to spring wheat. His pointed out that the name is already known to the trade unofficially in Liverpool, Minneapolis and Chicago and Ontario. A change in name would disturb the home and foreign market so far as hard winter wheat was concerned. He stated the wheat was perfected in Alberta and therefore the province should have the distinction of the name. Any province capable of producing the quality was always tested. There was more Manitoba hard produced in Saskatchewan than in Manitoba, and yet there was no desire to change the name of Manitoba as applied to spring wheat. Any change in name would so disturb the market as to compel sale by sample and the whole process of testing the quality would have to be gone over again and result in delay and considerable loss to producers. The bill was adopted.

Ottawa, June 22.—Hon. Mr. Emerson tonight brought down railway subsidies to the amount of $9,399,000. They are all revoted and include 50 miles for Western Alberta Company or a minimum of $160,000. Hon. F. Oliver's estimates were up most of the day. Nearly all passed.

On Monday evening, probably on 3rd or 4th street H. B. R. lady's gold watch with name "Beattie H. Nichols," engraved on back of case. Reward for finder at Alberta College.

Barley—Barley is firm, but very little doing in it. No. 3 is worth 43c, and No. 4, 41 1/2c in store Fort William.

Flax—There is nothing doing in flax, and the price is nominal at $1.03 for No. 1 northwest and $1.06 for No. 1 Manitoba in store Fort William.

CROP PROSPECTS. The prospects this week are for a record crop. Seeding conditions were very favorable which followed by two weeks of cool wet weather, gave a good chance for rooting the grain. The only unfavorable report is from South-east Alberta, where, owing to the dry winter the wheat in some districts is poor. Most of the bad wheat land has been regrown with coarse grains.

The Commercial estimates the wheat production for 1906 at 97,000,000 bushels, which should realize nearly $75,000,000 for distribution among the western farmers.

There are 4,268,000 bushels of wheat outside of Port Arthur and Fort William, where there is an additional quantity of 3,265,000 bushels.

Additional Changes in Wheat Grading—Concessions for Westward Shipments

Ottawa, June 22.—In addition to the changes already mentioned in connection with the grading of wheat it is understood that all winter wheat will be graded under the name of Alberta, which has secured its identity as a peculiar hard type of winter wheat, and already known to Ontario millers and Liverpool dealers as Alberta wheat.
 Winter wheat will in all probability be graded as Alberta red No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3, and Alta white No. 1, 2 and 3.
 The same privileges which are now given to wheat going east will be extended to shipments west, as a considerable quantity of this grain will find its way to the Pacific.

Great Scarcity

of Railway Ties

Immense Demand Causes Series Shortage—The President Position

Winnipeg, June 22.—The rapid construction of new lines of railway in the West, and the large amount of repair work, which must constantly be done, has necessitated the use of vast quantities of railway ties during the present summer and the fear has been expressed that there might soon be a shortage in this essential of railroad building.
 The nature of the demand for railway ties is strikingly instanced in the gradual disappearance of the vast piles of ties, accumulated during the previous year, by the Canadian Pacific at Vermilion, on the main line east between the city and Port Arthur.

C. N. R. May Build

Line to Saskatoon

Project is Now Being Considered by President Mackenzie

Saskatoon, Sask., June 22.—In reply to a resolution passed by the executive of the board of trade and sent to Mr.
 Wm. McKenzie, president of the Canadian Northern Railway Co., the following letter was received by the board, signed by Mr. Mackenzie: "The matter of building a line from a point on the Canadian Northern railway to Saskatoon will be taken up in the near future."

POLLARD'S LILLIPUTANS.

The Pollard Australian Lilliputian Opera Company, which opens at the rink in "A Runaway Girl," is the most remarkable organization of its kind that has ever visited this city for it has achieved unqualified success in every part of the globe during the period of its career, which is just thirty years. The company was originally organized in Melbourne for a tour of the Australian colonies, and so great was its success that it extended its itinerary to Java, Africa, the Philippine Islands, Canada, and other portions of the British Dominions, and more recently to the United States. To belong to the Pollard company is not only a distinction, but an advantage which results in benefit to its members long before and after they have retired from it. The children are all recruited in Melbourne and its surrounding country. They are carefully trained by a dramatic instructor, who has been associated with the Pollards for twenty years. When, in his opinion they are proficient, they are allowed to take part in the regular performances. In their travels they are accompanied by teachers. The girls are under the charge of four governesses, who see that they receive proper educational advantages. The boys receive the same attention from male tutors. Every other day is devoted to school, and the little pupils derive, in the way of object lessons, which are presented to them during their travels, benefits which are very rarely availed to even the children of the very wealthy. When the Lilliputians grow too old to take part in juvenile performances they are retired and their places are supplied by others. The male members are well prepared to fight the battle of life. They have the advantages, not only of a thorough education but a knowledge of men and things gained in their travels around the world. Several of the boys, who,
 a few years ago were singing with the Pollard Company, are today provious business men, and are established in Australia, China, Japan and South Africa, while many of the girls are wealthy and happily married. The few who continue in the theatrical profession are more than ordinarily successful as adults, for they do so, not from necessity, but from liking, and because they have received encouragement in the appreciation of their audiences.

New Competitor In

Telegraphic Field

Grand Trunk Pacific Will Install a Canadian System to Absorb the Present President Great Northwestern

Montreal, June 22.—In addition to equipping its new transcontinental line with a telephone system that will be used almost entirely by the train dispatchers, the Grand Trunk Pacific, it is now announced, will establish and operate a new telegraph system. The new telegraph company has been incorporated by parliament with a capital of $5,000,000, and permission will be asked by the company, to carry on a public telegraph business throughout the Dominion.

As the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway will open up new territory, especially in Western Canada, the establishment of a telegraph service is deemed an immediate necessity, not only for the benefit of the company's private business, but for the benefit also of commercial and financial business interests of Canada. The new company will enter into competition with the present telegraph services throughout the country, and indications would point to an active campaign for business between the rival lines. The inauguration of the Grand Trunk Pacific Telegraph will mean the absorption, before many years, of the Great North Western Telegraph by the Grand Trunk Railway, which, in conjunction with the Grand Trunk Pacific, will operate a telegraph system throughout the Dominion. There will then be practically only two telegraph companies in Canada, the Canadian Pacific Telegraph and the Grand Trunk Telegraph.

VETERAN EXPLORER.

The last number of the "Red and Gun," the greatest out-door paper in Canada says:

"Readers of 'Red and Gun' in Canada, are well acquainted with the wanderings of Mr. C. G. Cowan, who, though his home is in Londonderry, Ireland, never seems so happy as when he is on one of his many exploring trips in British Columbia and Alaska. This preference means much in the case of Mr. Cowan, who has hunted in South Africa, Australia, Siberia, and various parts of Europe, and thinks that 'now-where in the world can good sport be obtained as in Canada. Mr. Cowan went through the South African campaign commanding a company raised by himself and rendered good service to the British cause. He has made no less than sixty-six trips across the 'Atlantic ocean, and the same number of journeys across the continent to Vancouver.
 British Columbia and Alaska are his favorite hunting grounds and his knowledge of their territories is probably unequalled. With the exception of the Skeena River he has traversed every important stream in the well-watered province of British Columbia, and he now means to try to complete his exploring trips by proceeding to the head waters of the Skeena River."

"With this object in view Mr. Cowan after finishing his arrangements, which as an old campaigner was made with extreme care and completeness, left Kamloops by stage for Hazelton. He had previously sent forward his baggage and a number of men with their pack horses loaded with his provisions and outfit arranging to meet them at the point named. It is his intention to add several more to his band at Hazelton, and from there start his cross country journey through the Mountains. At the time he left Kamloops he had not decided whether he would proceed by the Yellowhead or Pine Pass but the calculations upon four months to complete the journey, his object being to explore the country. In addition to his exploring work Mr. Cowan hopes to gather specimens of big game to be mounted and set up in the Museum of Natural History at South Kensington, London, England.

"He proposes to call at a number of Hudson Bay posts, including Fort George at the junction of the Fraser and Macleod River, and will do some exploring work through the Peace River country north of Edmonton."

AN ANTIDOTE FOR CANADIAN THISTLE.

Kenosha, Wis., June 21.—A discovery has been made under extensive experiments by the agricultural department of the University of Wisconsin that spraying of sulphate of iron over the growing crops destroys the seed of the Canadian thistle and wild mustard, two of the greatest pests of the farmers. The discovery will result in increasing the value of farm lands at least twenty-five per cent. A spraying machine from Germany sprays at a cost of 50 cents per acre.

INDUSTRIES FOR CALGARY.

Calgary, June 22.—Two large new buildings were begun to-day. The Calgary Milling Company started a new flouring mill to cost $100,000, and the Calgary Biscuit Company started a new

TEN YEARS GOOD GOVERNMENT

To-day marks the tenth anniversary of the return of the Liberal party to power in Canada. In another column we give a brief resume of the work accomplished by Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Government in the decade just completed.

It is a record that any party and any premier might well be proud of, and to a great degree it is a personal triumph for the distinguished leader of the Liberal party. Sir Wilfrid is easily the first citizen of Canada and has proven himself not only a capable leader and a courteous gentleman, but a strong man able to grapple with and master every problem that has confronted him in the discharge of his onerous duties. In his choice of colleagues he has shown his wisdom and strength. His first cabinet was a master stroke and he has filled every vacancy since with the same evident knowledge of his men, and despite the fact that it has been the settled policy of the opposition and their press to depreciate every change in the cabinet, yet the administration has lost none of its strength and profiting by the experience of past years its policy improves rather than retrogrades and the Laurier Government stands stronger to-day than at any time in its history.

It was on the programme of the Opposition that the Government majority was to be greatly reduced at the last election, but the result of the vote was a substantial increase for the administration and an utter rout for the Opposition, their leader being among the fallen. The success of the Government was no accident, but the natural result of a capable and progressive management of the public business. It was a new thing in this country to have the affairs of the country managed with such enterprise and ability. The Post Office Department, the Immigration Department, the Public Works, were all so changed as to be practically unrecognizable, and above everything the country was given clean, honest government.

It must be with supreme satisfaction that Sir Wilfrid reviews the last ten years of his political life, and it is no wonder that during that time the Liberal party has made hundreds of converts, no small number of whom are in the West. It has been a great ten years for Canada.

RED DEER SPORT NOTES

Red Deer had five men last year battling over the 300 mark. One man over 500.

Jack Stenger of Coalbanks, has been in town for the past few days.

Wantless, the ex-Innisfail pitcher, is in town.

Reilly Stenger, of Content, is in town and has again taken up his position on first base. White and Stenger, the Cuban giant battery, played for the intermediates last year.

Pitcher Chauncey Moore has received a liberal offer to pitch one game at Regina on July 2.

THE MARTYR.

He read the packing house reports,
His actions thereto fitted,
And thereon from his bill of fare
All kinds of meats omitted.

He next put up the bars on fish;
Decided, after wrangling,
They ought to make the fishermen Wear white kid gloves when angling.

When he beheld the gentle cow No milk he dared to tackle, Nor would he eat an egg without A phonographic tackle.

Thus in a while it came about He perished from starvation,
And on his tomb they carved the words,
"Died of investigation."

Ottawa is to have a new playhouse.
This will make four within the city limits, including the city council.

Life insurance insures you against your own indiscretion, but it does not insure you against the indiscretion of the managers of the company.

When Kitty looks at me and smiles I dream into the afterwhiles And wonder if those eyes of hers Are pretty blossoms, or are—burbs.

The citizens of Winnipeg are questioning the sanity of the electric light company in that town. There was a reduction of prices of 40 per cent. recently.

In California tuberculosis is deemed sufficient ground for a divorce. An increase of the disease may be momentarily expected, accompanied by an influx of the afflicted to California.

Mr. William Jennings Bryan has been visiting the Russian Duma. Let him not linger overlong contemplating the glories of St. Petersburg lest a Cossack subsidized by the Republican National Committee poke him one in the slats with a sword.

Chicago packers put Canadian on their labels to deceive the English public. There is everything in having a good name, but the jails are full of men who used names that were not their own.

In water is typhoid;
In wine ruin's brink;
So when you are thirsty There's nothing to drink.

Our grandpas and grandmas Who were not so wise
Just ate, drank and physicked
And lived good long lives
But we, with our knowledge, Fear from night to dawn, Doomed if we stand still,
Wrecked if we move on.
No step can we take but We fear we will rue;
Alarmed if we don't,
Scared green if we do.
Yes, life is a puzzle,
And bitter our cup;
We can't guess it right
And we won't give it up!

THE MODERN PUZZLE.

Life is a puzzle
All sages avow,
But never so vexing
A problem as now.
Since the muck rake's been busy
And stirred such a stew Nobody can hardly Know just what to do To eat you must decide on—
You will or you won't;
You'll die if you do
And you'll starve if you don't.
If you're sick disease threatens.
In drugs danger lies;
If you take them you're poisoned,
If you don't you will die.
The air's full of microbes,
To breathe it is death,
And yet to be living
You must draw your breath.
All money is tainted,
Your soul cannot give;
It room—without money
Yet how can you live?

Good Fire Protection

Afforded Red Deer

Insurance Man Investigates and Finds the Town a good Rush—A few Notes on Sport

Red Deer, June 21.—Red Deer will soon be well equipped in the plumbing line. In addition to the old reliable Guy Edgington, Messrs. Houston & Co. of Regina, open on Main street next week and L. M. Maher of Winnipeg, Man., will open somewhere on Galtz avenue within the next two weeks.

An insurance underwriter turned in a false alarm about nine o'clock Monday morning, and the fire ladders did themselves justice, making the run to the Drackman-Ker elevator in record time. When they got there they discovered there was no fire, but were ordered to throw a stream of water on the elevator. They easily threw water twenty to thirty feet higher than the elevator, which is one of the tallest buildings in town. Red Deer need not fear fire as long as she is as well prepared for it as now.

Mrs. Sanson, wife of the new manager of the Bank of Commerce arrived on Tuesday's noon train.

G. Halliday has accepted a position under R. Jarvis, having terminated his connection with the Alberta Hotel billiard parlors.

F. Daley has taken over the Great West hotel.

Edmonton pressed brick is being unloaded on the Michener property opposite the Merchants Bank. Building operations will be started immediately. B. P. Alfred has purchased the Sam Long residence on Alexander avenue. Houston of the new firm of Houston & Co. is a pitcher of no mean reputation, being a pupil of the famous Bert Orr. He pitched against Calgary when on their tour to Winnipeg two years ago.

Frank Vicars has again taken the management of the Alberta Hotel billiard room.

Five marriages this week at Red Deer.

A. Barber is again in his old position at the Alberta Hotel.

ENORMOUS PAY ROLL OF RAILWAYS.

What the new transcontinental railway will mean to the working people of Canada is shown by the fact that at the present moment there are some fifty thousand men working for the Canadian Pacific railway. And this on the railway alone; those working on the general office staffs and the steamship companies are not included in the count. This means that if there are a million men amongst the six million people in Canada, about five out of every hundred of them are working for the Canadian Pacific railway.

The closest figures obtainable show that the average pay roll of the C. P. R. approximates forty-five thousand in the busiest summer season and about forty thousand in the winter. The estimate is necessarily not exact, because the list changes so many hundreds every day that anything more than approximate figures are quite unattainable. But the figures are quite sufficient to show that the big transcontinental road means a good deal to Canada. It is estimated that, taking the better paid with the lower paid men, they would average at the very lowest $500 a year. On would hand out about $20,000,000 per year to the road employees.

HIGH LEVEL JOURNALISM.

A new weekly is to be added to the list of Alberta papers on June 23rd, when the Climber makes its appearance in Banff. It will not be a local newspaper, but will be devoted to out-of-door life generally in the mountains and throughout the province. The Climber will contain from week to week, stories of mountain climbing, fish, game hunting, expeditions, Indian stories and stories of the early days. All the important open-air events throughout the province will be covered.

The first number contains a brilliant descriptive article on Banff, signed "Marjorie Moore," the nom de plume of a well known writer and society woman of San Francisco; an Indian ghost story, taken down verbatim from the lips of the story teller; some amusing features of the Women's Press Club excursion, which have not been mentioned in dispatches; and the first story in a series to be known as Tales of the Ex-Troopers, which relates how Inspector Boonday Jones was dismissed from the force by his own men. The Editor of the Paper is W. H. Footner, a young man who has had considerable experience in Journalism on the New York Herald and Evening Post.

The first number of Will Goldson's new paper, the Setter Independent is hand today. The paper looks all right. Opportunist evidently knocked at Goldson's door and when he opened, grabbed him and dragged him off to Seattle, where they needed a new paper.

Upholding the Law in the Far North

BY INSPECTOR HOWARD.

The report of Inspector Howard, commanding the R.N.W.M.P. in the Mackenzie district, has been published and contains a large amount of interesting information of the far north, its people and the life of the men who uphold the law in that country.

McMahon on Feb. 15th, says:

"The season when this route is open for navigation is short, being about three months, the ice seldom leaving Great Slave Lake before the end of June or beginning of July, and the water for nearly a month before the frozen-up is very low, especially in the rapids at the head of the Ramparts ice forms in the bays and along the shores of Great Slave Lake about October 24, and the lake is generally closed by the middle of November.

Winter travel is of course performed by dog trail. In the neighborhood of Great Slave Lake spring westward in about the middle of April, getting later the farther north you go, until at Good Hope and Macpherson spring does not set in until the third week in May. By the middle of May the snow has nearly all disappeared and lasts until September 15, when the days begin to shorten and the weather becomes cold. Winter proper may be said to last from October 15 until April 15.

Last year the river at this point was frozen over on October 17. I may say that here we are as the crow flies one hundred miles inside the Arctic circle. It is much farther by the river.
During the winter the cold is steady and the snowfall heavy.

"The first post in the district, Resolution, is situated on the western shore of Great Slave Lake, a short distance from the mouth of Slave river, and one hundred and ninety-four miles from Fort Smith. Great Slave Lake is a very large lake, and I understand has never been completely surveyed.
Length is about three hundred miles and at one place it is more than sixty miles wide. The settlement is made up of the buildings of the Hudson's Bay Co., Hyslop & Nagle and G. M.

Sniggett, fur traders, all having possibly employing a large number of men.
There is also a large convent, mission building, school and church belonging to the R.C. mission.

"The largest I saw in the district. The H. B. Co. grow barley here with success, sowing it about May 1, and harrowing it early in September. Wheat-also has been attempted with varying success. Vegetables are successfully grown, turnips, onions, carrots, radishes, beets and potatoes. These vegetables are planted about May 15.

"The fisheries also deserve mention.
The fisheries of Great Slave Lake are very valuable. Fish are taken at any time of the year in large numbers, either by hook or net, by the half-breeds and Indians living on its shores, and forms their principal article of food. The whitefish just before the advent of cold weather, leave the deeper parts of the lake and come to the shallower parts for warmth, and this is the favorite time for securing the fish called the Inconnu, or unknown, a fish peculiar to this lake and the Mackenzie, are also taken in large numbers. I was unable to get the short-finned had at my disposal on the way in to secure accurate statistics of the amount taken, but it is large, and although it has been going on for years the supply has not perceptibly diminished.

"This is also a very important post of the fur trade, one of the best, if not the best, in the district. It is from this point that a start is made for the Barren Grounds to hunt the muskox, and nearly all the robes find their way to this post for sale. Other fur is also very plentiful. Three fur companies having their quarters here, a large number of men employed by them are gathered here from time to time during the winter, and Resolution enjoys the reputation of being one of the roughest places in the Mackenzie and a good deal of disturbance goes on during the winter.

"The line dividing the Athabasca district from the Mackenzie is to go in four miles below Smith's. This district has been added to the new province of Alberta, and from conversation I heard at Chipewyan and Fort Smith I find that a number of the people are dissatisfied with the present law prohibiting liquor in the district, and intend when Athabasca is represented in the provincial legislature to try to have this law repealed and prohibition done away with or the old permit system restored. In either case liquor would be sure to find its way in from the district to Fort Smith and Resolution at least, if not down the Mackenzie, and would not add to the orderliness of these places.

"Owing to the importance of Resolution as a centre of the fur trade and above, I think there should be a detachment of police there, a corporal and two men and an officer who could act as magistrate with the same powers as those conferred on officers in the Yukon. I have refrained from reporting upon the necessity of a detachment at Smith's Landing, as this point is not in the Mackenzie River district, and I fancy belongs to Sup't.
Constantine's division, who will report on it. If the permit system is restored a detachment will have to be sent there to search all freight coming in, as it is the first post inside the prohibited district.

"The next post, Hay River, is situated at the mouth of Hay river, sixty-six miles from Resolution, on the western shore of Great Slave Lake, about fifty miles from the Mackenzie river.
There is a mission here belonging to the Church of England, and a large boarding school for Indian children, under the missionary, Mr. Marsh. There are a few Indians settled about it, but at present it is not a post of much importance and would not require police to be stationed there. The mission has a good garden at this place.

"Providence, about fifty miles down the Mackenzie, and about one hundred and sixty-eight miles from Resolution, is the next post on the river.
It is well situated on a good high ground on the west bank of the Mackenzie. The settlement is made up of Roman Catholic mission buildings, a large convent, church mission house and school, under the control of French priests of the O. M. I. order (they were flying a large French flag from the pole in front of the mission when we passed through). The buildings of the H. B. Co. and Hyslop and Nagle, and a number of log houses, occupied by employees and half-breeds and Indians.
The soil here is a stiff clay and suitable for growing barley and vegetables.
Wheat also is grown but is not a success, barley is. The wheat and barley are sown about May 20, and require about three months to ripen. Vagabonds are planted at any time between the 10th and end of May, according to the season. Hay can be obtained from the neighboring marshes of good quality. From what I could learn, I think it would be desirable for police to be stationed here. A corporal and two men. It is necessary to have three men on these detachments in this country as it is not safe for one man to travel alone.

"This is a post, a S.M.S. This point is beautifully situated on a level plateau, at the top of a steep bank, on an island at the junction of the Liard and Mackenzie rivers. The buildings here are arranged in the manner of the old posts of the company, inside a fenced square with buildings on the sides, being open on the east side facing the river, and is large and well-built. This is the headquarters for the Mackenzie district, and all the work is supervised from here by the officer in charge of the district who makes his residence at this point. The supply for the Liard are all transhipped here and loaded on scows to be tracked up the river to the Hudson's Bay missionary's post in that district. Hyslop & Nagle, fur traders, have a post here, and there is a small mission of the Roman Catholic church, and a larger one on the church of England, with large church and school house and dwelling for the missionary in charge. Soil here is stiff clay. Vegetables are grown here without any trouble. Barley is sown about May 21, and ripens about September 21. Potatoes are planted between the 20th and end of May. There are large numbers of Indians and half-breeds going and coming about this post and from what I could gather from Mr. Lucas, the Church of England missionary, and others, police are required here. Child abandoning (one case last winter), wife beating (two cases last winter), and assault (a number of cases last winter) occur every winter.
During the winter, an intoxicated indian made here by the half-breeds and given to Indians and half-breeds. It is manufactured from hops, yeast, dried fruit and sugar, and must be a wonderful mixture, but from what I was told, it certainly has the desired effect, as it renders them very drunk, when as a natural consequence fighting and disorderly conduct follow. This intoxication, I understand, is also made at Resolution, and this fact has been reported to the police at Chipewyan.

Quarters could be easily arranged for here, and as it is the most central post, and an important one, should I think, be the residence of the officer in charge of the Mackenzie district with a detachment of a sergeant and two men. From this point, this officer in charge could cover his district.

"The next post on the river is Wrigley, one hundred and thirty-six miles from Simpson. Before reaching Wrigley a branch of the Rocky Mountains is passed through. Wrigley is a small post of only two houses, a dwelling-house and store-house of the company and a few Indian shacks. As there is only a small Indian population about it, and it is of relatively small importance, I do not think there is any necessity for police here. It would be visited in the winter from Simpson with the dogs. Vegetables are grown here.

"The next post is Norman, it is also a small post, of relatively small importance and very small Indian population, and could be visited from Good Hope. There is a small Church of England mission here. Vegetables are also grown at this point.

"Good Hope is the next post, situated on a level plateau at the top of a very high and steep bank, (in which steps have been cut to render the ascent more easy) on the east side of the Mackenzie. There is a nice post of the H. B.
Co. here in the form of a square, also a large mission of the Roman Catholic church, fine large church, school, con-

St. Petersburg, June 21.—A serious mutiny, which threatened to place Sevastopol in possession of the mutineers, was suppressed with great difficulty yesterday. The mutiny was started by a battalion of artillery which declined to obey orders, whereupon the men were promptly disarmed. Two other battalions then mutinied and took possession of guns in the north shore batteries, but on the appearance of the loyal regiments the mutineers abandoned the idea of fighting.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—Peasants have risen against their landlord and are parading the country roads, killing all who oppose them, and burning valuable estates. Four estates owned by leading members of the nobility have already been laid waste and the peasants are in absolute control.

Odesa, June 22.—According to Socialists who have been carrying on the propaganda among the troops in the garrison here, 27,000 men have announced their intention to refuse to obey their officers should they be ordered to police duty.

Kelff, June 22.—Two regiments in the local garrison here, mutinied and tried to murder their officers. Affairs are serious as only a small portion of the garrison remains faithful to the czar.

Port Arthur, Ont., June 21.—William Slater, of Sault Ste Marie, is in jail here charged with killing Lester Young, of the same place. The men were coming up on the steamer Monarch to work on the Grand Trunk and had been drinking during the night. Slater and Young were put in one room to sleep.

Norfolk, Va., June 21.—In a rear end collision on the Atlantic Coast line this morning two men were killed and two fatally injured.

Vienna, June 21.—Mariano Konpova has been arrested at Wilezka, near Krakow, on a charge of killing 300 children, some of whom were murdered by battering in their skulls and others by burying alive. Most of the children were illegitimate entrusted to her care.

Wellington, N.Z., June 21.—The funeral of Premier Seddon took place here today. The day was observed as one of mourning throughout New Zealand.

ORIENT FUTURE FLOUR MARKET.

"In ten years' time the Orient will consume all the flour you can grow in the North-West." This startling statement was made in Regina recently by J. Hugh Bishop, of the firm of Erastus Bishop & Son, London, East India merchants. Mr. Bishop is returning from a trip of some months' duration in the east, and he is taking the opportunity on his return to look over the famous Canadian wheat fields. He has visited Shanghai, Hong Kong and some of the principal trade centres of the Celestial Empire, as well as Tokio and Yokohama.

"This is by no means my first visit to the Orient," he said, in answer to a question, "but I notice a wonderful metamorphosis during the last year or two, especially in China, where the surprising victories of Japan have inspired a new faith in its people as to their future. Of course there is nothing of the same spirit which animates the Japanese, the whole trend of religion and education in China is in opposition to progressiveness and the martial qualities. Nevertheless, the Chinese are waking up, as the Americans have recently found out to their cost.

"This movement is making itself felt in many directions. Not the least notable feature is the manner in which flour is gradually displacing rice as the staple of the educated Chinese. The Japanese have gone further along this line, but the Chinese are importing more and more flour every year from the States. From samples I have seen, this is of a very inferior quality, but neither the Japs nor the Chinese seem to appreciate the value and economy of first class flour. The Americans have got hold of the trade at present, and the flour they supply is milled from the soft wheats of the Pacific slope. The supply was interrupted by the San Francisco disaster, and prices of flour in Hong Kong, where I was at the time, immediately advanced.

"The superiority of the flour milled from your hard wheats is now universally acknowledged, and it only needs a vigorous educative campaign to demonstrate that to these Orientals. Once you can persuade them that there is more value per dollar's worth of your flour than in American flour, you will have no difficulty in getting control of that market. The American firms, however, are far more enterprising than those of other nations. I never, indeed, came across a single representative of a Canadian firm, except one man who was buying teas, while the American are everywhere, pushing their goods, and almost always speaking the native language.

"It is a pity that your millers should neglect such splendid opportunities. The more I see of this country, the greater I think of its future, but I am certain you are making a grave mistake in subordinating your oriental to your European market. The Orient in a dozen years will be able to take all the wheat ground in the West, thought it will still probably pay to ship the best brands to Liverpool."

ROPING TEXAS STEERS.

A Chicago despatch says: Pursuing a steer from a running start across a large arena, roping, throwing and tying it in the remarkably short time of 31 seconds, is the record that stands alone in the history of the motor car. This was accomplished in the full view of thousands of spectators at the last convention of the National Association of Cattlemen, held in Fort Worth, Texas, not long ago. The performance was the outcome of a bet of $500 between two wealthy cattlemen of the state, one of whom was an automobile enthusiast, having unbounded confidence in the ability of the motor car.

The representative of a well known motor company tells how the money was won, as follows:

"The next morning we took the car, which was an ordinary seven horse power runabout, and went out to experiment a little. We cut a steer out of a bunch after a little manoeuvring and succeeded in roping him.

"Thus encouraged, we walked confidently for the afternoon to come around. The steers were penned in a corral at one side of the grounds and let out one at a time by means of a narrow chute. The grand stands and the bleachers were packed by thousands of people from all the surrounding territory.

"When about ten or a dozen had been roped in the usual way by the cowboys one of the judges strode over to us and said, with a broad grin: 'Well, get the cow pony out and let us see what you can do.'

"Without further ado we drove over to a position alongside the chute and a steer was let loose. We took up the chase immediately but were handicapped more than once on a pony, for the can attain full speed in a couple of jumps, while we had to warm up more gradually. So he had a pretty good lead when we hit our full gait. It did not take us very long, however, to close up once we were started. We followed him across the enclosure, but had to come quite close, for Dillingham always works with a 25-foot rope.

"Just as the steer commenced to turn Bill gave the lariat a swift fling, landing the noose squarely over the horns. As it settled along his flank, I turned the machine sharply at right angles with the course, gave the rope a twist around the steering post and then, suddenly as a streak of lightning you might say, came the strain. The machine spun half way around, something snapped and the frame quivered and shook; but the steer was thrown hard and flat on the ground. I can hear the thud as it struck. The crowd set up a cheer that I have never heard equalled. They stood on top of the chairs, waved their hats and yelled as if mad.

THE SONG OF THE THRUSH

Ah the May was grand this mornin'!
Shure, how could I feel forlorn!
Such a land, when tree and flower tossed their kisses to the breeze?
Could an Irish heart be quiet While the Spring was running riot, An' the birds of free America were singing in the trees?

In the songs that they were singing No familiar note was ringing, But I strove to imitate them an' I whistled like a lad, O, my heart was warm to love them
For the very newness of them—For the old songs that they helped me to forget—an' I was glad.

So I mocked the feathered choir
To my hungry heart's desire, And I gloried in the comradeship that made their joy my own, Till a new note sounded, stilling
All the rest. A thrush was thrilling!
Ah! the thrush I left behind me in the fields about Atholme!
Where, upon the whitethorn away-ing,
He was minstrel of the Maying.
In my days of love and laughter that the years have laid to rest; Here again his notes were ringing!
But I'd lost the heart for singing—Ah! the song I could not answer was the one I knew the best.

—T. A. Daly, in the Catholic Standard and Times.

TEN YEARS OF LIBERAL GOVERNMENT

Expanding Trade, Increasing Population, Enormous Immigration, Railway Activity

A Record of Efficiency

Probity and Progress

Ten years ago today a general election was held in Canada and the Liberal party was returned to power. So long had the other party been in the habit of winning that they were stunned by the blow. At first they were incredulous and almost refused to believe the news; but when forced to admit the fact they began to prophesy as to results. Sir Hibbert Tupper predicted that the Laurier government would not last for three months, while the elder Tupper could foresee all kinds of ruin for the country under Liberal rule. Speaking in the House of Commons at the first session he said he deplored the ruin that was going to be inflicted upon the best interests of Canada and upon its great industries.

The prophesy of Sir Charles has not only failed to come true but Canada has enjoyed ten years of unprecedented prosperity. In these ten years mortgages have been paid off Canadian farms, new markets for the products of the soil have been secured and better prices obtained, manufacturers have flourished as never before, factories have been enlarged again and again and new industries have sprung up all over Canada; laborers' wages have been almost doubled and no man in the country who is willing and able to work need search long for employment.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier gathered

The Conservative policy began at the wrong end. Its purpose was to make the manufacturer sell, which he was unable to do, because the consumers had no money. The great consuming class of Canada is the farming class. Under the National Policy and during Conservative administration they were poor and unable to buy what the manufacturer had to sell. The British preference at once created a new market for Canadian farm produce. During the first seven years of Liberal government the exports of farm products increased 250 million dollars. The British consumer became interested in the Canadian producer. In 1906 the farmers of Canada sent to Great Britain only 20 million dollars worth of cheese, butter, eggs and bacon, as against 50 millions in 1903. This explains the prosperity of the manufacturer. Fifty millions of British gold was put into the pockets of the Canadian farmer and with it he was able to buy as never before. Such was the result of the preference.

Another prime factor in Canada's unprecedented prosperity today has been the vigorous and successful immigration policy of the government. The Laurier government has peopled the west. Land without population is a wilderness and the immigration department set to work to populate the wilderness of the west. The old government spent tion has at last been realized. The whole dominion is now divided into provinces, and united from ocean to ocean. The Great West has become the granary of the Empire under Liberal administration and the city of Winnipeg has become the greatest wheat city in the world. As early as 1878 Sir Charles Tupper expressed the hope that under Conservative government he would see a hundred thousand prosperous farmers in the West, producing 100 million bushels of wheat. This year it is estimated that the wheat production will reach the 100 million mark. This vast quantity will realize some seventy millions in cash for the western farmer to distribute among the merchants and manufacturers, whose factories are running night and day to overtake their orders. The British preference, and the immigration policy of the government are directly responsible for our expansion in trade from 200 millions to 470 millions, and for the addition of a million to our population. These are true tests of a nation's progress.

A GOVERNMENT OF REFORM.

One of the first acts that claimed the attention of the Liberal government was the repeal of the Franchise Act of 1885. The act was costly and unjust. Besides costing the Dominion treasury a large sum, each party was forced to maintain a host of clerks, revising barriers and expenses for printing. These combined expenses are said to have amounted to $2,000,000 for each revision, while at the same time we had the provincial lists. At one stroke this act was wiped out and the provincial lists adopted. Akin to this was the Gerrymander Act. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had always taken the stand that county boundaries should be adhered to in the formation of electoral districts. Accordingly in 1903 the Gerrymander was abolished and the New Distribution Act passed. This act has been commended as fair and equitable by all parties, and especially the independent press. The best test of its fairness is the fact that it was prepared by a committee from both sides of the House and was heartily concurred in by Mr. R. L. Borden, leader of the Opposition.

One of the greatest burdens the taxpayers had to bear under the old administration was the great cost of superannuating civil servants. The Liberals while in opposition declared it was unjust to every other class in the country to discriminate in this way. They said the civil servant had no more right to a retiring allowance than a farmer or laborer. They have abolished forever the practice of superannuation and thus save many thousands of dollars that is devoted to public improvements.

CHEAP POSTAGE.

The post office department is one of the many triumphs of Liberal administration. One of the strong points of the Laurier government has been the fact that men of energy, courage and business acumen have had charge of the departments. The post office is a splendid example of this. Under Conservative rule the post office carried a deficit every year. Mr. Foster and Sir Charles Tupper said as late as 1895 that it could not be made to pay. There was a deficit of $781,000. Strictly up to date business methods changed this to a surplus of $304,000 in 1904, and at the same time so popularized the service that the number of letters carried last year was double the number carried in 1896. It is still the policy of the government to administer the post office to meet the growing needs of the country, especially in the west, and it has appointed an inspector for the western provinces to extend the service with the growth of settlement.

We have not only domestic penny postage but Imperial penny postage, and Mr. Henniker Heaton, the greatest advocate of postal reform in the world, is on record as saying that the boon of Imperial penny postage was finally due to the untiring efforts of Sir William Mulock. We can hardly overestimate the effect of such action in strengthening the ties that unite the Empire.

CHEAPER CUSTOMS SERVICE.

The reforming skill and administrative genius of the government has been well exemplified in the customs department. In the latter period of the Conservative administration the press of Canada continually recorded the dissatisfaction of the business community with the management of the customs and tariff laws. The service was shackled by unbusiness-like regulations, harshly, and often foolishly applied. Collecting taxes is always a hard business. Hon. William Patterson, who has presided over the department for ten years, is a business man and has popularized this branch as far as it is possible. His aim has been facility to trade and protection to revenue. That he has been successful the figures abundantly prove. Trade has doubled, while the customs revenue has increased from 17 millions in 1895 to 37 millions. At the same time the cost of collection has been cut in two. In 1895 it cost $5.31 to collect $100; last year it cost $3.31.

BENEFICIAL LEGISLATION FOR THE WORKINGMAN.

Having regard to the importance of labor and workmen's interests the government created the Department of Labor in 1900. The Minister of Labor set his deputy to investigate conditions and he found that the sweating system had been extensively practiced for years, especially in the government contract for clothing. This led to the anti-sweating laws and the fair wage law whereby workmen engaged on government contracts are paid according to the prices of the labor market. The department provides for the enforcement of this law and within the last few years nearly a hundred claims of workmen on public works have been adjusted by fair wages officers.

The first effective Alien Labor law was passed by the Liberal government. This was done in response to a general feeling on the part of Canadian mechanics that the enforcement of the law should be more in their own hands. This was done by enabling any person to bring action, and obtaining half the fine imposed. For example, in the case Rex vs. Gosser, where a miner at the Lethbridge, Rossland, laid information that the law had been violated, and got half of the $500 imposed. Great as are these specific measures, they do not compare with the great boon the government has given the workman by inaugurating a trade and immigration policy that has brought prosperity to employer and employee. The wage of every class of mechanic has increased a half. It was actually told in the last campaign that some men voted against the government because wages were so high.

COMPLETED CANADA'S CANALS.

Nothing is more important to the farmer of the West than a cheap route to the seaboard. To secure this great end the Liberal government has improved the harbors of Lake Superior, where western wheat is delivered by the railways; the harbors of transshipment in Ontario; harbor facilities at the seaboard, at St. John and Montreal for storing and shipment for ocean carriage; the St. Lawrence ship canal with electric lights and telegraphs; deepened all the canals to sixteen feet and abolished canal tolls. The aim has been to give safe and cheap transportation for the products of the Great West and divert western trade to Canadian channels. To show more particularly what has been done, the department of public works has built five powerful dredges to keep the St. Lawrence route clear. With this equipment 30 miles was dredged to a depth of 30 feet, and widened to 450 feet, in some places to 800 feet. The department of marine and fisheries built 54 new light-houses, 26 range lights, 42 beacons and 40 foghorns, besides dozens of buoys.

FINANCIAL RECORD.

The charge is frequently made that the Liberal administration is extravagant because they have spent more than their predecessors. We contend this is untrue. The fixed charges of the country have increased with its growth. We cannot compare the expenditure of today with that of ten years ago without making allowance for the tremendous advancement the country has made. If we have a larger expense account we have a far larger income or revenue account. We submit it was extravagance for the Conservative government to spend 51 millions when they were earning only 37 millions. While on the other hand it is economy for the Liberal government to spend 63 millions when the total consolidated revenue fund was 79 millions. The government lived within its means.

The government have added very little to the public debt, and in 1904 actually reduced the debt. Considering the material growth of the country, the large sums spent on capital account, it must be admitted the increase of 7 millions to net public debt of Canada is very moderate indeed. We ask our readers to compare this with the 13 millions that was added in 18 years under Conservative rule, or nearly as much in one year as during the under Liberal rule. The net debt per capita is less today than ten years ago, when it was $50; now it is reduced to $44.

During seven years the Liberal government has spent 63 millions on capital account as against 37 millions spent in the same time by our predecessors. The 26 millions so spent by the Liberals was paid out of current revenue, while out of the 37 millions spent by the Conservatives, 21 millions were provided for by additions to the public debt. This splendid result has been achieved without adding to the burdens of taxation; on the contrary taxation has been lowered. Customs duties are on an average 13 per cent lower than they were. Postage rates a third less for domestic and United States rates; a half less for British rates. Removing the restrictions from trade, and every phase of the country's business has resulted in increased revenues in all departments, and given us the splendid succession of surpluses for the last nine years.

Through the efforts of Mr. Fielding, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's able finance minister, Canadian securities have been placed upon the Treasury List in Great Britain, which comprises such investments as British Consols. The advantage to Canada will be understood when we state that it increases the selling price of such securities 3 per cent, which means an appreciation of 24 million dollars in the present Canadian securities. This has a very beneficial effect upon all Canadian business securities offered for sale in Great Britain. It increases Canadian credit.

REMARKABLE STORY OF NATIONAL GROWTH.

It is a cardinal principle in political economy that the foreign trade is the best test of a nation's prosperity. There is the jingle of prosperity in the pockets of the people that the Liberals promised. Total trade has more than doubled and has increased faster in the last ten years than any country where statistics are obtainable. The effect of this is evidenced by a great industrial activity with manufacturers crying for more skilled help. In many cases they have been forced to decline export trade, being too busy supplying the needs of our own people.

Hon. Frank Oliver

It is particularly gratifying to the supporters of the government that notwithstanding the baleful prophecies of the Opposition the signs from which encouragement and hope spring, are abundant. Labor is fully employed; manufacturers are working up to the full limit of their capital; new markets are being exploited and old ones enlarged; improved transportation in canals and railways. To dwell upon the possibilities of the future affords a vast scope. Railway earnings, bank statements, the failure and any other tests by which the material conditions of a country are judged, indicate that Canada around him in his executive council a body of capable men who undertook to give Canada a business administration, and to govern the country in the interest of the Canadian people rather than in the interests of the Conservative party.

The efforts of the government which preceded the present administration had been to build up an industrial Canada by a system of taxing the people for the profit of the manufacturer, while the Laurier government recognized that industries could only be built up by building up a purchasing nation with money to buy the product of the factory. The British preferential tariff solved the difficulty. It promoted and stimulated trade with Great Britain in a manner that astonished the world. It advertised Canada as the colony to take the first real step in Imperialism, resulting in a demand for Canadian products in the British market to such an extent that millions of dollars of British gold filled the pockets of the Canadian farmer and he could buy and pay for the product of the manufacturer.

vast sums of money on immigration without success; our population steadily decreased; the great west remained a wilderness. The success that has attended the immigration policy of the government has been entirely due to advanced business methods. Agencies were opened in the old country and conducted upon the same lines as our great mercantile agencies. Offices were opened in the cities of the United States and as a result thousands of settlers have come in within the last ten years. They have added to the wealth of the country. Those coming from the United States were a very desirable class, but every settler has been an advantage to the country. It is said the average value of a man to society is $1,000. From this we can easily compute Canada's assets in the last few years. The effect of bringing a million people to the west has been marvellous. Canada has entered upon a period of development and commercial expansion unprecedented in the history of any nation. The dream of the fathers of Confederation

Prospect of Pathway Gladdens the Hearts of Settlers in the White Whale Lake Country

Wabamun, June 22.—Special to the Bulletin.—White Whale Lake region is the Mecca of many landseekers at present and parties may be seen daily looking over the available homesteads and such land as is offered for sale. There are only a very few open quarters left north of the lake, and every piece of lake shore property has either been purchased or homesteaded. It is necessary now for the prospective homesteader to go south or west of the lake to find land, and judging by the large numbers who are going in these directions, land is being taken up rapidly there also.

The prospect of a railroad service in less than two months makes glad the hearts of the denizens of this particular district, and especially so those who have made many weary trips over the non too good roads to Edmonton to secure the necessities of life or other reasons. The C. N. R. right of way crew have marked out the right of way to nearly the west end of the lake, and the contracts for grading have been let to about a mile west of the bay. Parties of surveyors are busily working west of the Pemina river and it looks as though the work would be pushed as rapidly as possible until winter sets in.

It is reported that the lots which were offered for sale at the east end of the lake are being taken up quite satisfactorily to the vendors. From the amount of money which is being invested by Edmontonians in property about the lake it is evident that White Whale Lake is generally conceded to be the summer resort of the Northwest. The west end of the lake has a fine beach, pure sand and one could go into the water a block distant from the shore and not be over one's shoulders. The banks are high and wooded, the water clean and clear making altogether as pretty a lake as one seldom sees.

Dr. Carthew is preparing to build a home on his C. P. R. land. He made a trip to town this week to meet his wife and family, who came up from Qu'Appelle sooner than expected.

P. J. Francey and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy at their home on the 18th inst. There was no school here this week owing to the absence of the teacher D. H. Leet, who attended the teachers' institute in Edmonton.

Our mail carrier Mr. Alken, met with a very serious accident recent'y while going after the mail at Stony Plain. His team became frightened at a piece of paper blown up by the wind and started to run. A break in the harness made control of the team impossible and Mr. Alken was drawn over the dash board with the lines, and striking on his head, was rendered unconscious for about twenty hours. Mrs. Alken, who was with him, fortunately escaped any serious injury. Mr. Alken has been removed to his home and is now recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

The family of Mr. Adair is a welcome addition to the settlement in 53-5. Several more families will soon be added to that enterprising settlement of Americans.

The sympathies of the whole neighborhood are extended to Mr. Gussie, a new arrival, for this settlement, who recently came to Edmonton with a car of effects for friends and who upon after his arrival has received a dispatch informing him of the sudden death of his wife. He has a family of seven children, who will be brought to Edmonton by friends and looked after for a time.

HUDSON'S BAY ROUTE

In addition to what we have before stated regarding the Hudson's Bay route for Canadian wheat, we are now informed that the authorities of the Canadian Northern Railway have made a definite statement to the effect that they will construct a line to Fort Churchill. This is regarded as the best shipping port of the bay. A survey party has been up country for some considerable time, and their report is that there will be no great engineering difficulty, the country through which the branch will pass being only slightly wooded and fairly level, and the plant, teams and men are on the spot and will begin just as soon as the weather permits. For nearly the whole distance of 600 miles the route is Dominion lands and will accordingly have the support and guarantee of the Dominion Government for its bonded securities. We heartily welcome this definite statement as to the actual beginning of operations and trust that nothing will occur to prevent its being successfully accomplished. In some American quarters it was thought an independent route in the region named was an impossibility, but apparently there are others who have gauged the position more accurately and hopelessly. There is no quarrel whatever with present methods and routes, but an additional one, and under government auspices, is very welcome. Besides that, it counts, or will count, for something in the matter of Empire building, seeing that it will increase the facilities for making it more self-supporting by freeing Canada from some of the existing transport obligations, adding one more to the many points of outlet for the quickly expanding harvest products, and assisting also in the spreading of population over a still wider

Good Hope, n.e. officer, two men, total three.

Macpherson, n.e. officer, two men, total three.

A total of two officers and eighteen n.e.o's and men would easily control and keep the different points of this district in touch. Timber (good logs) for building purposes could be readily procured at all these points and the cost of putting up the detachments would not be large. I do not think that for controlling a district of this size (the distance from Resolution to Macpherson is 981 miles) two officers and eighteen n.e.o's and men can be considered too many. If it is decided to establish detachments at these places of the H. B. C. were notified by the first mail they would have the logs out ready for the building of the detachments and the men coming in would only have to put them up and quarters would be ready for the winter. There is a sawmill at Simpson, and lumber, I have no doubt, could be procured at that point. Officers coming into the Mackenzie river district should have the same powers as those conferred on officers in the Yukon. There are no white people living at the posts outside of the Hudson's Bay Company's employ, the traders and the missionaries, and most of these would, I think, care to act, as it would be liable to hurt them in their trading.

STOP AND CONSIDER

Get in on the Ground Floor

North Jasper place has been very carefully subdivided by the Dominion Land Surveyors into Blocks, each containing twenty full sized lots of 150 feet x 50 feet. The streets are 66 feet wide and the lanes 16 feet. With the property subdivided in this manner there will be no trouble in the future about allowances for streets, etc. The same cannot be said of many of the sub-divisions. Our advice is to buy a block, half block or quarter Block of this property, and buy it NOW, as there is nothing like getting in on the ground floor.

We have quoted the very lowest possible figures on this property and from present indications the whole sub-division will be sold within the next thirty days. Prices must be advanced next week.

CHICAGO COPIES MOUNTED POLICE.

Calgary, June 21.—Capt. W. Arnold, a retired American army officer, spent yesterday in Calgary inspecting and studying the methods of the R. N. W. M. P.

Capt. Arnold, who has an excellent opinion of the Mounted Police, says it is the intention of the authorities to organize a similar force to do duty in the outskirts of Chicago, and his visit here was to more thoroughly familiarize himself with the workings of the organization.

He spent the day at the barracks and was given all the information he desired by the officers there. He left on No. 96 last night for Regina to visit and inspect the headquarters.

Capt. Arnold expresses himself as much interested and delighted with the management of the force here and will probably recommend this system of organization to the people of Chicago.

WHITE UNEASY.

Speaking in Montreal on Monday Mr. Wm. White, of the C. P. R., said: "If Mr. Hill after completing railway connections can induce the wholesale dealers of St. Paul and Minneapolis to cut their prices for Canada, then the entire western trade of the Dominion will be lost to Eastern Canada, if the country itself is not lost to the British empire."

CANADIAN FLOUR IN JAPAN.

The desirability of Canada giving heed to the transpacific trade, is being recognized by the more clear-sighted among the newspapers of the East, and in a recent issue the Toronto News suggested that "the taste for wheat flour and its products be stimulated in Japan by opening in several of the cities bookshops, selling only Canadian flour and selling bread at cost or less to the Japanese." The proposal is one which might well engage the attention of the government. It will be remembered that at the Japanese exhibition held in Tokio, a plan similar to this was pursued, with the result that the people were impressed with the superiority of flour from this country to that imported from the United States. As a direct consequence of that brief period of well directed advertising, several orders of considerable importance were received from Japan by Canadian merchants, and since that time more or less trade in this commodity has existed. With the erection at Vancouver of a flour mill and a wheat elevator, the demand for the Canadian product ought rapidly to increase if some such method as that suggested by the News is carried into effect. The cost to the Dominion Government would be a mere bagatelle if the proposed plan were carried into operation under the direction of the present able and careful agent now stationed at the Japanese capital, and the results to Canadian trade would without doubt speedily and amply justify the experiment.
